Freedom Of Information Publication Scheme

This is Bradstow School’s Publication Scheme on information available under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. It supports the Model Publication Scheme prepared and approved by the Information Commissioner’s Office. The governing body is responsible for maintenance of this scheme.

Introduction: What a publication scheme is and why it has been developed

One of the aims of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (which is referred to as FOIA in the rest of this document) is that public authorities, including all maintained schools, should be clear and proactive about the information they will make public.

To do this we must produce a publication scheme, setting out:

- The classes of information which we publish or intend to publish
- The manner in which the information will be published
- Whether the information is available free of charge or on payment.

The scheme covers information already published and information which is to be published in the future. All information in our publication scheme is available for you on our website to download and print off or available in paper form.

Some information that we hold may be exempt from release. The following is a list of categories to which exemptions might apply:

- information accessible to the applicant by other means;
- information which is intended for future publication (including draft publications and web content);
- information which has been collected and held as part of investigations and proceedings conducted by the school;
- information which, if released, would or would be likely to prejudice law enforcement activities;
- information which, if disclosed, is likely to endanger someone’s physical, or psychological, health or safety;
- information which can be categorised as personal information about a living individual who can be identified;
- information obtained from an individual or organisation which, if disclosed, would constitute a breach of confidence actionable under common law;
- written communications between a qualified professional legal adviser and their client for the purpose of seeking or providing legal advice;
- information which, if released, is likely to prejudice the commercial interests of the school or any other organisation.

Aims and Objectives

“Living and learning together within a Culture of Gentleness” requires each of us to be mindful that:

The central purpose of our presence in the lives of others is to:

- Nurture
- Teach
- Sustain
The experience of:
• Connectedness
• Companionship (what it is like to be and have a friend)
• Community of contribution

Through the principles that make every one of us feel:
• Safe
• Loved unconditionally
• Loving towards others
• Engaged meaningfully in life

We express these principles using:
• Words that are kind, uplifting, encouraging and loving
• Eyes that are warm and smiling
• Touch that is gentle and respectful
• Presence that is attentive and responsive to the person

And by reflecting upon our relationships in the context of how we have planned:
• The environment
• The organisation of life
• How information is understood and acted on
• The dialogue (listening, interpreting and adjusting)

The Culture of Gentleness can be supported by:
• Keeping our young people at the centre of everything we do
• Working harmoniously together so we can realise the goal of giving each young person a real life
• Fostering a sense of community within Bradstaw

and this publication scheme is a means of showing how we are pursuing these aims.

Categories of information published

The publication scheme guides you to information which we currently publish (or have recently published) or which we will publish in the future. This is split into categories of information. These are contained in section 6 of this scheme.

The categories of information that we undertake to make available are organised into four broad topic areas:

4. School Policies and other information related to the school - information about policies that relate to the school in general.
