Well done to everyone who took part in the 'Our Changing World' painting competition.

There were some amazing paintings and we all enjoyed looking at them in class 5's gallery!

Three were chosen to put in the exhibition at Sainsbury's and one talented young person won second prize for her entry!! It was a beautiful painting of the wind farm at sunset.

Article 29: Education must develop the child’s personality, talents and abilities to the full.
Many young people took part in a sponsored 5 mile walk from Bradstow School to the boating pool in Ramsgate! It was a hard challenge but they raised more than £100 to help people across the world live happier, healthier and safer lives.
Football

Article 31: Every child has the right to relax and play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities.

Article 15. Every child has the right to meet with other children and to join groups and organisations.

Some lucky young people have been to watch the England vs Italy football match. The score was England 1 Italy 1.

Young people have joined together to celebrate World Book Day and act out a story together! Everyone had a wonderful time.
Article 29: Education must develop the child’s personality, talents and abilities to the full.

We have enjoyed African drumming workshops and a visit to Pie Factory recording studio.

No child shall suffer cruel treatment or punishment. A child should be arrested and put in prison only as a last resort and then for the shortest possible time.

Contact Lois to have your story in the Bradstow Voice next time.